

St Edward's Talks presents world renowned violinist, Tasmin Little, in her final ever Windsor performance.

Tasmin Little OBE

BBC Music Magazine Personality of the Year 2019

The brilliant violinist, Tasmin Little takes her final Windsor bow before stepping down from the concert platform in summer 2020. On Friday, 18th October between 7:30-8:30pm St Edward's Talks offers you Tasmin's final Windsor performance in the intimate setting of St Edward's Parish Centre. It is an extraordinary and unmissable opportunity to hear Tasmin close-up, playing solo violin and speaking to you about her life as a musician.

Speaker's Corner

Tasmin Little has firmly established herself as one of today's leading international violinists, giving over 20 performances alone at the BBC Proms. She has performed on every continent and in some of the most prestigious venues of the world, from Carnegie Hall to Vienna Konzerthaus and with orchestras that include the New York Philharmonic, Melbourne Symphony and London Symphony Orchestra to name but a very few. Her multi award winning career encompasses concerto and recital performances, recordings, TV and radio broadcasts, masterclasses and community outreach work. Tasmin is an exclusive recording artist for Chandos Records and we feel privileged to welcome her to our community.

www.tasminlittle.org.uk

Date:

Friday, 18th October 2019

At:

St Edwards Parish Centre

Alma Road

Windsor. SL4 3HJ

Time:

7.30 - 8.30pm

NB: The talk will last 1 hour followed by a glass of wine

£15.00 to include a glass of wine

(Ticket must be retained to surrender for a glass of wine following the presentation)

All funds raised to go to local community charity causes

Contact email: stedwardstalks@gmail.com