

Classic moment

Little goes large with Belmarsh prison recital

Tasmin Little gives an impromptu recital at Belmarsh high-security prison. The violinist wowed inmates with Vivaldi's The Four Seasons and Gershwin's 'Summertime'. The visit was part of Tasmin's campaign to make classical music more accessible, following on from her free online album, The Naked Violin. Her progress has been filmed by the South Bank Show, to be broadcast on ITV1 on 15 June. ■